A DEAD ONE.

Richmond has an unrequited mayor who says he recognizes only two flags the state flag of Virginia and the battle flag of the confederacy. He is probably the kind of man that a western humorist once described as walking around to save funeral expenses.—New York Tribune.

HAWAII IN CONGRESS

DELEGATE KALANIANAOLE GIVES A VERY CLEAR IDEA OF THE SITUATION IN REGARD TO THE REFUND BILL AND THE PUBLIC BUILDING SITE BILL. THE REFUND BILL HAS GONE TO THE UNION CALENDAR—CANNON'S POSITION.

Washington, D. C., April 2, 1906.

EDITOR HAWAIIAN STAR.—As already reported by cable, the Committee on Territories has favorably reported the Revenue Bill with the single amendment that the term be reduced to five years. Although this vote passed by a safe majority in the Committee, it was only after the hardest kind of personal effort among the members that this action was secured. Mr. Capron who was absent from most of the hearings has been very hesitant in his attitude up to the last few days, but at the meeting, he made the strongest plea in favor of our bill. The report which is to be submitted to the House by Mr. Cole had, at his request, been previously prepared by my Secretary and was also approved by both Mr. Hatch and myself. As will be seen by the report, use has been made of the comparison with the fiscal conditions in Porto Rico; this was done because it was found that this was the single recommendation which appealed to the chairman and certain other members of the Committee; and it was their opinion that it would also be the strongest recommendation for use with many members of the House.

In securing this favorable report, the first stage of our fight has been won, but it is evident that a big struggle is still ahead of us. The action of the Speaker in placing the bill in the Union Calendar instead of the House Calendar is taken as indicating that he is either still opposed to the measure or that he insists on having it practically within his own control. Inquiry develops the fact that some of the Democrats of the Committee who were favorable to the measure are now intending to oppose it so that apparently concerted opposition of the Democrats will have to be met. If however we can only have Mr. Payne won over, and can secure the consent of the Speaker to have the bill called up, I am hopeful that it can be passed; but it now seems likely that we shall not be able to do this until toward the end of the session.

The report of the Election Committee, No. 2 unanimously favoring my election was made to the House on March 26. Chairman Dilscomb strongly emphasized both in the report and in his speech before the House that the Election Laws of Hawaii should be revised and an addition made providing specially for the election of a delegate to Congress. I have discussed the latter subject with Chairman Hamilton of the Committee on Territories and he advises that the question of change to Election Laws and all desired amendments to the Organic Act be carefully gone over by the Hawaiian Association and the Commercial bodies during the coming summer and a single bill be drawn up embodying all the amendments desired to the Organic Act. It would therefore be well for citizens who are interested in this matter to prepare their suggestions in definite form so that they can be gotten together during the summer.

The item of $35,000 for legislative expenses passed the House during the past week and will doubtless pass the Senate as soon as this bill comes up in that branch. We today secured from the sub-committee of the Committee on Territories a favorable report on the bill appropriating $35,000 for filling in the naval station, and building retaining walls of the same and shall make an effort to have this incorporated in the next deficiency bill.

Previous to our hearing before the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds two weeks ago, I was told by the chairman that they had decided not to allow any of the Territories to have a place in the bill. Knowing this danger we made vigorous arguments for the claims of Honolulu and Hilo on the ground that revenues now paid to the Federal treasury were available for public buildings in the Territory and were in part used for such purposes.

This has been followed since by a campaign of personal interviews with members of the Committee. A number of these men have expressed themselves definitely in favor of setting aside their rule and giving at least provision for a public building site for Honolulu.

The Omnibus Public Buildings Bill will not be reported to the House for about ten days; but from certain remarks made to me by a member today I am very hopeful that we are to be given a place in the bill.

Very truly yours,

J. KALANIANAOLE,
Delegate to Congress.
